

Study Guide 7

Silk Road, Islamic Civilization, Readings: Silk Road Trade, Islamic Civilization, Voyages p. 258-271

AP World History

Kienast

Key terms:

Samarkand

Kashgar

Muslim Agricultural Revolution

Qanat System

Noria and sakia

Shaduf

Ibn Sina

Nasir al-Din al-Tusi

A'ishah al-Ba'undiyyah

Essential questions:

Silk Road trade intensified during the period 600-1450 due to demand for luxury goods in what civilizations?

What new technologies permitted the use of domesticated pack animals to transport goods across longer routes, such as the Silk Roads?

What were the philosophical, scientific, and mathematical contributions of Islamic civilization?

New irrigation methods had to be developed during the Muslim Agricultural Revolution due to the introduction of what water-intensive crops?