

Study Guide 9

Nationalism and Unification of Germany and Italy, Rise of Modern Japan, Readings: Nationalism in Italy, Germany, and Austria, The Meiji Restoration

AP World History

Kienast

Key terms:

Nationalism

Giuseppe Mazzini

Count Cavour and Giuseppe Garibaldi

Wilhelm I

Otto von Bismarck

Danish War, Seven Weeks War, and Franco-Prussian War

Alsace and Lorraine

Realpolitik

Second Reich

Balkans

Sat-Cho

Commodore Matthew Perry

Meiji Restoration

Essential questions:

Germany was able to unify in the nineteenth century while its neighbor, Austria was unable to develop a strong Empire. Why the difference?

Evaluate the extent to which strategies used by nationalists in the period 1750-1900 were similar.

Why was Japan unable to stay isolated in the nineteenth century?

Japan was able to westernize more easily than other Asian countries. List several factors that allowed them to westernize.

Explain how the Meiji Restoration is an example of state-sponsored industrialization.

What evidence shows that the U.S. and Europe were influential to the reform movement carried out during Japan's Meiji Period?

Compare the Meiji Restoration to at least one other reform movement outside Western Europe.